Discrimination is Against the Law

GastroIntestinal Healthcare (GIH) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, including sex characteristics, including intersex traits; pregnancy or related conditions; sexual orientation; gender identity, and sex stereotypes. GIH does not exclude people or treat them less favorably because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

GIH provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids and services to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats).
- Free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include qualified interpreters and information written in other languages.

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, contact Amy Slater, Practice Administrator at 919-870-1311.

If you believe that GIH has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with Amy Slater, Practice Administrator, phone number 919-870-1311, fax number 919-881-0822, mailing address 2011 Falls Valley Drive Suite 106, Raleigh, NC 27615. You can file a grievance in person or by mail, fax, or email. If you need help filing a grievance, Amy Slater is available to help you.

You can also file a civil rights complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/portal/lobby.jsf>, or by mail or phone at:
